MIA MISCHIEF CRUISES TO VICTORY IN $121,680 DREAM SUPREME OVERNIGHT STAKES

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (Friday, Nov. 1, 2019) – Bill and Corinne Heiligbrodt, Heider Family Stables and Madaket Stables' star filly Mia Mischief dominated the $121,680 Dream Supreme Overnight Stakes by five lengths Friday afternoon at Churchill Downs.

Ridden by Julien Leparoux, Mia Mischief completed the six furlongs in 1:09.50. In the early stages of the race, Mia Mischief broke sharply but was relegated just off the pace of dueling leaders Skamania and Shanghai Tarriff through a contentious opening quarter-mile fraction of :22.02. At the top of the lane, Leparoux tipped Mia Mischief to their outside and abruptly took command of the race as the heavy 4-5 favorite. The 2-1 second choice in the wagering, Meadow Dance, was able to rally for second while Pretty Greeley held third at odds of 40-1.

Mia Mischief returned $3.60, $2.60, $2.10. Meadow Dance, with Shaun Bridgmohan aboard, paid $3.20, $2.60 while Pretty Greeley, with Sophie Doyle in the irons, returned $5.

"She ran extremely well today," Leparoux said. "She was well in hand the entire race and just did everything as easy as possible."

Mia Mischief now has eight wins through 19 starts with six seconds and one third and boasts career earnings of $1,083,834. Mia Mischief is a 4-year-old daughter of Mia Mischief out of the Speightstown mare Greer Lynn. She was bred in Kentucky by Spendthrift Farm.

Mia Mischief is slated to sell in next week's Fasig-Tipton November Sale in Lexington.

Pace-setting Shanghai Tarriff finished fourth followed by Skamania, Upset Brewing and Ascot Day. Majestic Reason and Divine Queen were scratched.

Racing continues Saturday at Churchill Downs with a first post of 2:15 p.m.

DREAM SUPREME QUOTES

Julien Leparoux, jockey of MIA MISCHIEF (winner): "She ran extremely well today. She was well in hand the entire race and just did everything as easy as possible."

Jorje Abrego, assistant trainer of MEADOW DANCE (runner-up): "We're very proud of her effort against a nice filly. She got more stakes earnings today which was very good."
